FOREWORD

Some are saying goodby, some are saying hello, and some are not saying anything; another year of school is completed. In this book we have tried to package a year at S. H. S. As you go through the pages we hope it will recall many pleasant memories, and maybe a few funny ones.

Athletics....Basketball games, and the trip home on the bus....gab sessions.... the library....waiting in line at the lunch room.....plays.....school parties....the prom and banquet. These are just a few of the things that make Savage High....the school it is.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

C. G. GRENZ
Superintendent

You can measure your progress year by year not by grades or courses covered-important though these are-but by the deepening of your purpose and the widening of your influence for good. The duty of everyone is to be aware where he is going, for great works are not measured in terms of quantity or the time they take to accomplish; but purpose, direction, endurance, and benefit for all people-these are standards of a stern judge-our fellow man.

What you are and what you do chart your course to fame or oblivion. You may choose either direction, but once you have made your choice, don't stand still. Travel, and progress.

HISTORY

Our class entered school in Sept. 1950 with 17 members. We were initiated and given an initiation party by the Sophomores. Sponsored by Miss Goss, we painted the "S" and gave a return party to the Sophomore Class.

When our class entered its Sophomore year we found that two members had been lost, Vernon Gebhardt and Raymond Hein; we had also gained two new members, Ruth Hessenthaler and Dwight Brose. Percy Kassner had a car accident so he dropped out at the end of the first semester.

We presented the Junior-Senior Prom with Mr. Calkins as sponsor and carried out the theme "April Showers."

We entered the Junior year with 13 members. The three members we had lost were La Donna Jones, Claudelle Gulbraa, and Sharon Willian. Then, Robert Stordahl left at the end of the semester. With Mr. Calkins as sponsor we put on the Junior-Senior Banquet carrying out the theme "Oriental Gardens." We also put on the Junior Class play, "Paddle Your Own Canoe"; Mrs. Larson was director.

When school started in Sept. '54 a mere group of 9 Seniors were here to start. Dwight Brose, Lola Vallejo and Wayne Wuest had left us. In November we presented the Senior Class Play, "Act Your Age," under the direction of Mrs. Hammer.

On May 25th we became alumni. Violet Knopp was valedictorian and Janis Mitchell was salutatorian.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

As I sit back in my easy chair and relax. I see a book lying on the table entitled "Who's Who and Why in Savage, "85."

I open the book and begin reading about Ruth Hessenthaler Bates, social leader, wife of Basil Bates, the stockbroker. Noted for her lavish and charming hospitality, particularly to visiting celebrites, she has recently entertained the Prince of Wales, the King of Senegambia and others. Because of her delicate beauty, she has been painted by Van Dyck, Rembrandt, and Michaelangelo. Social Clubs: Dinner Dance Dames; Daughters of the Daily Dozen.

Warren Prevost, famous inventor. Married to Wilma Moneybags, daughter of the multimillionaire T. Goofus Moneybags. Warren has invented over a thousand labor saving devices; some of them are: "Restwell mattresses" for oyster beds and exercises for reducing one's income tax. Club: Amalgamated Tinkers.

Violet Knopp Trapenzonski, premiere danseus of Russian Dancers, the Chinese Ballet. Married and divorced 3 times. Noted for grace, beauty and originality of dances. She introduced the popular grapevine glide and the Thistledown float. Hobby: prevention of corns. Clubs: The Heel and Toe; the Hoofers.

Percival X. Kassner, owner and manager of huge chain of restaurants known all over the world as the Eat & Run Restaurants. Prides himself on his rise from proprietor of hot dog stand on South Street, to the owner of 100 plate glass restaurants. Married to Kitty, the champion pancake flopper of the state. Hobby: analyzing hash.

Wilma Hamburg, B.S., A.B., M.A., Ph.D., D.D.S., F.O.B., and S.O.S. Dean of the Dormitory College for Girls for the past ten years. Author of "What Isn't Wrong With Education," and "How To Teach Russian to low I.Q." Hobby: Failing to pass intelligence tests.

Gerald Penrod Kuester Esq., a poet of the new school. Author of "Owed to a Tailor," "Lines on a Lady's Face," and "Sonnets to a Sun-flower." Unmarried but frequently reported engaged. Hobby: Bird Watchers of the Yellowstone Valley.

Janis Mitchell, Head Nurse of the Yellowstone Clinic for the Physically discussed. She has been a nurse there for 37 years, and has been going steady with the surgeon for 18 years although she has been reported seen stepping out with the janitor several times. Known for her extensive research in the curing of rabid giraffe bites. She is also known for her very healthful and soothing toe rubs. Club: United Shot Givers of America. Hobby: sterilizing toothpicks.

Sandra Sluiter, sixtieth President of the United States elected by the Independence Party. Active since infancy. Mayor of her town 3 times, a Senator 2 terms, Speaker of the National House of Representatives one term. Sponsored the bills for disfranchising saxophone players, radio-crooners, and talkative fishermen. Noted for her foreign policy, although it has never been made public and probably never will. Hobby: crocheting bathmats. Club: League of Discontented Voters.

Carol Barone, Part time wrestler, alias Muscle Mama; three time winner of the Women's Wrestling Association of America. Mama also won the champion wrestling match of the world, held in the gigantic outdoor colliseum in Kandahar, Afghanistan. She is the originator of the death like grip, the 1¼ Nelson. She occupies the other part of her time by being an entertainer and bouncer in the popular night club in Nevada known as "Gambler' Galore." Club: Associated Entertainers of the Underworld. Hobby: Knitting silk sweaters.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1955, will the following to the lower classmen. If you question the sanity of our decisions seek information from the "Board of Education."

Violet Knopp, wills her glasses to Carl E., her figure to Billy H., her gift of gab to Steve R., and her height to Mr. Grenz.

Percy Kassner wills his ability to type to Frank L., his reading ability to Marvin L., his assistant Manager's job to Robert J., and his quietness to Pat Murray.

Janis Mitchell wills her height to Billy H., her glasses to Mrs. Hammer, her hot lunch job to anyone that wants it and her small feet to Big Foot.

Ruth Hessenthaler wills her early rising time to Phillip P., her small feet to Gary B., her diet and big earrings to anyone interested.

Gerald Kuester wills his red hair to Elaine L., his broad shoulders to Gary B., his basketball playing to Mervin D., and his brain power to anybody who needs it.

Carol Barone wills her dimple to Mervin D., her wrestling ability to Mrs. Hammer, her earrings to Robert J., and her romances to Mr. Cornish.

Sandra Sluiter wills her green eyes to Carl E., her early bedtime habits to Gary B., her earrings to Elaine L., and her blond hair to Mervin D.

Warren Prevost leaves his basketball playing to Delton C., his bass horn to anyone who wants the relic, and his temper to anybody dumb enough to take it.

Wilma Hamburg wills her height to Kay H., her cheerleading to Gail S., her baritone to Gary B., and her Signal Editor's job to Jim R.

CLASS OF '56

"The only way to get work done, is to do it."

In 1952 we started out our freshman year with sixteen in the class. There were four girls and twelve boys. In November Harriet Mitchell was elected Carnival Queen. Shortly after this Harriet and Shirley Mitchell quit school. At the end of the first semester Daniel Adams moved to Sidney to attend school there. This left 13 pupils in the freshman class; our class sponsor was Mr. Cornish.

In 1953 we started our Sophomore year with 12 pupils. Monte Gable quit because of work at home. We also lost Jim Jimison in April. We started working on the Junior-Senior prom the first of April. Our theme was "Moonlight and Roses." Our prom would never have been a success without the help of Mr. Cornish, our sponsor.

We are Juniors now and have 8 left. Gracia Helland moved to Shepherd, Montana, at the end of the first semester. Richard Stordahl moved to Alexander, North Dakota. We put on our Junior Class Play "Where's the Fire," under the guidance of Mrs. Hammer. As our sponsor, she also helped us put on the Junior-Senior banquet; our theme was "Old Mexico." Our Class officers are: President, Steve Rice; Vice President, Robert Johnson; Secretary and Treasurer, Jim Rahn.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

"WHERE'S THE FIRE?"

The action of the play centers around Grandma Carter's none-too brilliant 40 year old "boy" who likes to chase fires. Sylpha Nesbit, a neighbor, has romantic notions about Herbert.

Handsome John Smith comes to town, mysterious fires start, and everyone suspects everyone else of arson. At the end of the play, the real culprit is caught, and all ends happily.

Director of the Junior Class Play was Mrs. Robert Hammer.

The Annual and Signal staff was composed of the English IV Class this year. The Signal staff has been working hard to get a paper out every six weeks. Our Annual deadlines have all been sent in on time, thanks to Mrs. Hammer, our advisor.

At the first of the year we chose Editors - Warren and Ruth. Our first job was selling ads in Glendive and Sidney. Working on the ad pages came next. Mr. Kenney helped us choose our covers and division pages. The annual staff has worked hard to meet the deadlines in order to bring you the 1955 year-book.
